

OFFICE OF GLOBAL STUDIES

UMAIE J-term 2018 Course Equivalencies

Location	Course Title	Course Equivalency All courses can be taken for elective credit provided students meet the prerequisites.	Prerequisites
Brazil	Inequality and Resistance: Culture and Social Justice in Salvador, Bahia, Brazil	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: 2nd Theology Course* Major/Minor: THEO 3000 Level Course	None
Spain and Morocco	Arab and Jewish Influence in Spain and Morocco		None
Germany, France & England	Immigration and Belonging in Europe: Refugees and Immigrants in Germany, France and The U.K.	Sociology Elective	None
England and Scotland	A Wizard of Their Age: Harry Potter in Context	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: Literature	This will be a 200-level literature course; prefer completion of a first-year composition or entry-level literature course but will consider successful completion of a core humanities class - theology, philosophy or history - that is both writing and reading intensive
Italy and England	The Grave Robber, The Doctor and The Artist: Anatomy, Medicine and Art in Historical Europe	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: Laboratory Science, Fine Arts	None
France and England	The Modernist Moment: Literature Between the Wars	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: Literature	This will be a 200-level literature course; prefer completion of a first-year composition or entry-level literature course but will consider successful completion of a core humanities class - theology, philosophy or history - that is both writing and reading intensive
England	The British Roots of American Journalism	COMM 2050	Sophomore status (at least 30 earned credits)
Poland	John Paul II in his Polish Context	This will fulfill the Core Liberal Arts requirement for Religion for B.A. and B.S. programs	None
Italy, France, & Spain	Literary Passports: Travel and Transformation	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: Literature	This will be a 200-level literature course; prefer completion of a first-year composition or entry-level literature course but will consider successful completion of a core humanities class - theology, philosophy or history - that is both writing and reading intensive
Germany and Denmark	Psychology of Sustainability in Germany and Denmark	Psychology Elective	General psychology or other introductory social science course (sociology, economics, geography) is preferred
Spain	Spain Now: Oral Expression and Business Spanish in Seville		For Spanish Oral Expression and Culture, the prerequisite is Advanced Spanish Grammar with a minimum grade of C-. For Business Spanish, the prerequisite is a fifth semester course in advanced Spanish grammar, and either an upper-level composition course or an upper-level conversation course, with a grade of C- or better in each course. For this program students should also have a 3.0 GPA overall.
Uganda and Rwanda	Global Health in Uganda and Rwanda: Towards Analysis, Equity and Action in Social Medicine		None
Hawaii	Hawai'i: Multi-Cultural Communication in Diverse Organizations	COMM 3100	None
India	The Religions and People of India	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: 2nd Theology Course* Major/Minor: THEO 3000 Level Course	A genuine interest in cultural and religious diversity in India is required. Requires a significant amount of walking, so reasonably good physical condition is helpful.
Japan and Hawaii	Pacific Powers: The Cultural History and Diversity of Japan and Hawaii	Core Liberal Arts Requirement: History	None

* Please note: These courses have been approved to meet the 2nd Theology requirement for a Bachelor of Arts degree. In order to complete the SCU requirement, students will need to take or have taken an additional Theology course on campus (generally THEO 1000 or THEO 2000).

 Students may take one interdisciplinary course to fulfill two liberal arts requirements. Only courses taught by SCU faculty apply.